

Terms and Conditions

The technical drawings and manuals ("Materials") may only be used in accordance with the End User Licence Agreement ("EULA") set out below.

The Materials provided following the workflow available using our fitting instructions-functionality in our QR code program offering are not owned by FEDERAL-MOGUL AFTERMARKET EMEA BV - A TENNECO COMPANY with registered office Prins Boudewijnlaan-5, B-2550 Kontich, Belgium ("us" or "we").

We are only sub-licensing these Materials to you as an end user in accordance with the EULA.

The Materials are only intended for use by professional users with professional training. In addition, the Materials do not relieve the user from exercising due care. This means that they do not replace formal training, the need to read a product manual, or the need to seek advice from a trained mechanic or other suitably qualified person in order to install or use a product.

We voluntarily provide this feature and may discontinue at any time without giving a reason.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, any liability in connection with the usage of the Materials by us is hereby excluded.

By checking the box "I agree to the Terms and Conditions" and proceeding by clicking on "Let's find your car" you confirm that you agree to these terms and conditions and also the End User Licence Agreement below.

END-USER LICENCE AGREEMENT (EULA)

DEFINITIONS

EULA	The subject Agreement.
Incorrect Source Data	An inaccuracy or error in the Source Data and/or its presentation.
Incorrect Technical Data	An inaccuracy or error in the Technical Data and/or its presentation.
Infringement	Acting contrary to one or more conditions related to the EULA.
Licence	The non-exclusive right granted to use the Licensor's specific Technical data.
Licensor	HaynesPro B.V.
Technical data	The Source Data edited by the Licensor using his own formats to be issued by Licence.
Source Data	The technical information originating from the automobile manufacturers and other certified suppliers, which the Licensor processes into Technical Data for purposes of its contractual counterparty.

1. Acceptance of EULA

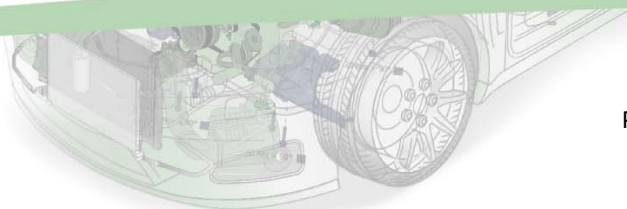

The EULA is a legal agreement between you and the Licensor. You agree that the EULA is enforceable in the same way as any written agreement established by you. The EULA regulates the use of the Technical Data (possibly with associated software) originating from the Licensor. By clicking on the 'I agree' button and/or by making use of Technical Data from the Licensor you agree to the content of the EULA. If you do not accept the EULA, you cannot and may not make use of the Technical Data.

2. Licensing and Infringement

- 2.1 The Licensor gives you a non-exclusive and non-transferable right to use the Technical Data specifically made available to you on the basis of the conditions as contained in the EULA. The Licensor allows you to use the Technical Data solely in accordance with the conditions of the EULA.
- 2.2 Leasing, lending, public dissemination (including providing support to third parties by means of a helpdesk or any other means), or any other form of distribution and/or simplification of Technical Data - by any means - is prohibited.

derived from the Technical Data. You will also not permit others to perform such actions.

Clearly better data.

- 2.4 In the case of an Infringement you should cease the use of the Technical Data immediately and you are liable to the Licensor for any loss incurred by the Licensor as a result of the Infringement, including any extra judicial and judicial costs to be incurred by the Licensor.

3 Intellectual property rights

The copyright and other intellectual, industrial and/or other property rights to the Technical Data and to any copy that is made thereof are and remain the property of the Licensor and/or its suppliers.

4 Guarantee

The Licensor guarantees that the Technical Data can be consulted and/or printed without this being seriously hindered by errors and/or other shortcomings in the software and/or without important functions of the software being unavailable, provided that use is made of the software application supplied by the Licensor. If the Technical Data cannot be consulted or cannot be consulted effectively or fully, the Licensor will do everything reasonably possible as quickly as possible to resolve this.

5 LIABILITY

Neither the Licensor nor its suppliers are liable to you and/or third parties for any loss, for direct, indirect or incidental loss, consequential loss or other loss (including, but not limited to loss arising from the inability to use the Technical Data or to gain access thereto, loss of information, business loss, loss of profit, business interruption, etc.) arising otherwise from the use of or inability to use the Technical Data.

Despite any loss that you incur for whatever reason, the Licensor's liability arising from or related to these EULA for Incorrect Source Data is excluded, unless intent or wilful recklessness exists on the part of the Licensor.

For the rest the liability of the Licensor (including for Incorrect Technical Data) is limited in all cases to the amount of € 1,000.

6 Applicable law and competent court

This agreement is subject to Dutch Law. The court in Utrecht is competent to hear disputes arising from the EULA.
